

DRYSHIPS INC. CONTINUES ITS FLEET RENEWAL

December 05, 2007 Athens, Greece, DryShips, Inc., (NASDAQ:DRYS) a global provider of marine transportation services for dry bulk cargoes announced today the following:

- The company has entered into an agreement to purchase a 2001 built, 172,579 dwt Capesize bulk carrier, for US$152.25 million. The vessel will be delivered charter free during the second quarter of 2008.
- The Company has entered into an agreement to sell the 1993 built, 149,475 dwt Capesize bulk carrier, MV Netadola for US$93.9 million. Delivery to the new owners will take place during the first quarter of 2008. Once the sale is concluded the Company expects to realize a gain of approximately US$62.2 million.

George Economou, Chairman and CEO of DryShips Inc., commented “We are pleased to continue with our strategy of fleet renewal. The replacement of MV Nedatola, a 14 year old smaller Capesize vessel, with a 6 year old modern Capesize dry bulk carrier, enhances our earnings potential and the longevity of our cash flow. We continue to take full advantage of the strong fundamentals of the dry bulk industry with our modern fleet.”

Forward-Looking Statement

Matters discussed in this release may constitute forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements reflect our current views with respect to future events and financial performance and may include statements concerning plans, objectives, goals, strategies, future events or performance, and underlying assumptions and other statements, which are other than statements of historical facts.

The forward-looking statements in this release are based upon various assumptions, many of which are based, in turn, upon further assumptions, including without limitation, management's examination of historical operating trends, data contained in our records and other data available from third parties. Although DryShips Inc. believes that these assumptions were reasonable when made, because these assumptions are inherently subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies which are difficult or impossible to predict and are beyond our control, DryShips Inc. cannot assure you that it will achieve or accomplish these expectations, beliefs or projections.

Important factors that, in our view, could cause actual results to differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements include the strength of world economies and currencies, general market conditions, including changes in charter hire rates and vessel values, changes in demand that may affect attitudes of time charterers to scheduled and unscheduled drydocking, changes in DryShips Inc.'s operating expenses, including bunker prices, dry-docking and insurance costs, or actions taken by regulatory authorities, potential liability from pending or future litigation, domestic and international political conditions, potential disruption of shipping routes due to accidents and political events or acts by terrorists.

Risks and uncertainties are further described in reports filed by DryShips Inc. with the US Securities and Exchange Commission.
